

AT A GLANCE...

2022 JMG® National Leader Training Overview

DAY ONE:

Monday, February 21, 2022 (8:00-5:00)

General Session – JMG Program & Curricula Overview

Utilizing JMG curricula resources.
Implementing best practices, project-based learning, managing students/groups
Access Group/class registration, recognition & certification options

Hands-On, Concurrent Sessions

JMG Core Curricula
Literature in the Garden
Wildlife Gardener
JMG Level Two (Operation Thistle & Operation W.A.T.E.R.)

JMG Implementation Concurrent Sessions

Monday Meet & Greet Evening Reception (5:30-7:30 pm)

DAY TWO:

Tuesday, February 22, 2022 (8:30-5:00)

General Session – Curricula Features & Model Programs

Early Childhood Learn, Grow, Eat & Go! + Learn, Grow, Eat & Go! for Elementary
Involving local county Extension, volunteers and parents in your programming
Reach into schools, after school programs & clubs
Prepare/lead JMG teacher training workshop events

Hands-On, Concurrent Sessions

In Depth: HANDS ON – Early Childhood Learn, Grow, Eat & Go!
In Depth: HANDS ON – Learn, Grow, Eat & Go! for Elementary
GROWING SUCCESS Sessions

Texas A&M Garden Tour and Featured Garden Sessions

DAY THREE:

Wednesday, February 23, 2022 (8:30-4:00)

General Session Keynotes

Growing Sustainability for Your JMG/School Garden Projects

Generate funding to support programs
Build sustainability through community collaborations and partnerships
Utilize program resources, marketing materials, supporting platforms and school garden grants

Closing Concurrent Sessions

Success Stories: Proven Models for Thriving Programs
Research: Measuring Program Impact
Implementation: Creating Implementation Plans at Your Campus

JMG State Coordinator Dinner Meeting (by invitation)

2022 Junior Master Gardener National Leader Training
February 21 – 23, 2022 | Texas A&M University, College Station, TX