

Directions for Parking and Classroom Location

Due to construction, we ask that all students use the secondary (south) entrance to the Dallas Center and park in the lot located behind the Education Building (Building E). Parking from the McCallum stoplight entrance is very limited and lacks easy access to Building E. The class will be held in the Building E classroom. Please enter through the rear door. The classroom will be on your right in the foyer area.